Maurer Telecommunications Law Moot Court Team Makes Final Rounds

The Law School sent two teams to the Telecommunications Moot Court competition again this year, and both teams made it to the final argument.

Meg Burton, Tim Conroy, and Michael Caine faced off against Joe Fuschetto, Joey Kaufmann, and Tayler Mayer in the final round, with Fuschetto/Kaufmann/Mayer taking home first place. They also won the award for best brief. Both teams were coached by Natalie Jones, Darrian Campbell, and Jon Levy. The last time a Maurer team finished near the top was a second-place finish more than a decade ago. A special thanks goes out to Professor Michael McGregor for oversight of the entire process.

Center for the Business of Life Sciences Information Session and Reception

Join the Center for Business of Life Sciences at the IU Kelley School of Business for an information session and reception on Thursday, February 21st from 5:30-7:30p.m., Kelley Graduate Building room 0034. There will be a presentation about LemerPax USA and the emerging life sciences cluster in Southeast Indiana. Also, the reception will be a great opportunity to network with guest presenters, CBLS staff, and a diverse group of students in the sciences, medicine, informatics, law, business, and other fields. Hors d'oeuvres and beverages will be served. The attire is business casual. Reserve your seat by Monday, February 18th by emailing Kelli Conder at lifesc@indiana.edu.

Protective Order Project Volunteer Call-Out

2Ls and 3Ls: If you have not started your goal of 60 hours of pro bono service yet, you can begin volunteering for the Protective Order Project at any time during the year. Please contact Jenny Rulon at jrulon@indiana.edu if you are interested in volunteering with POP this semester.

CJAM Basic Mediation Training

The Community Justice Mediation Center (CJAM) offers a 32-hour basic mediation training for any community member interested in helping facilitate community mediation. The spring training will take place from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. over two weekends, February 9-10 and 23-24, at the Law School. Participants who complete the training are eligible to work as CJAM volunteer mediators; however, any community member interested in learning basic mediation skills is welcome to participate. The training will be led by senior mediators from the Community Justice and Mediation Center. Tuition is $200, with scholarships available.. For more information or an application, e-mail training@cjamcenter.org, or phone the office at (812) 336-8677.

How to Schedule an Event

An online form is available to plan and schedule meetings. Please use this form to request a room, notify Indiana Law Annotated, and send other information about your event. You will receive confirmation that your room has been reserved after your request has been processed. When filling out your event description, please provide all information possible, especially if you are requesting that the event be publicized.

ILA Submissions

Indiana Law Annotated is published every Monday while school is in session with news about the coming week (and, if requested, for the week after that). Submit information and articles for ILA to ila@indiana.edu by Thursday at noon for inclusion in Monday's edition. Length of submission is limited to 150 words, unless otherwise approved. Entries may be edited to ensure consistent presentation. If you're requesting a room, submit all information (including the room request) via the Plan a Meeting feature of the website. If you have questions about an item appearing in the ILA, please contact Ken Turchi (kturchi@indiana.edu; phone 856-4044). Indiana Law Annotated is archived online.

Audio-Video Services

Send requests for AV services to Max Exter (lawav@indiana.edu). Please include the name of your group and the e-mail address of the contact person, a description of what you want to do, and the date, location, starting time, and duration of the event. Requests must be made at least 48 hours in advance and will be confirmed by e-mail.
